

2017 Stutz Artists Open House Frequently Asked Questions

Where can I park?

In addition to on-street parking on Capitol Ave., Senate Avenue and 11th Street, several nearby lots are available for free parking during the Open House. Lots are under the highway overpass north of 11th Street between Illinois and Senate, on the north and south corners of 10th and Capitol, and in the IU Health lot west of Senate between 10th & 11th Streets. Download the parking map on stutzartists.com.

Is the building handicapped accessible?

Most areas of the building are quite accessible, with wide corridors and available elevators. The Stutz complex extends a full city block, so it can be challenging for those who walk with difficulty. And because Friday night draws large crowds, those with mobility issues might be able to better navigate the event on Saturday. Accessible restrooms are on the first floor and the second floor of the A building and the second floor of the E building.

Where do I buy tickets?

- Tickets are $12 in advance, available online. Go to stutzartists.com for a link, or <https://stutzopenhousetickets.eventbrite.com>.
- Tickets are $16 at the gates, which are located at 10th and 11th Streets between Senate and Capital.
- Guests can return Saturday for free with their Friday ticket stub.
- Will Call tickets will be at the 10th Street entrance.

Are children welcome?

Yes. Saturday's smaller crowds and more laid-back atmosphere make it a more welcoming environment for those attending with children. Children 12 and under are free both Friday and Saturday with a paid adult. Saturday includes hands-on art activities, youth art scavenger hunt, free cookies from Raymond James, and more.

Will there be entertainment?

Yes, there will be musical groups performing throughout the building.

When you buy art, do you take it with you, or pick it up another time?

Many people choose to take smaller items with them at the time of purchase. However, most artists are happy to accommodate buyers by allowing them to pick up purchased work at the end of the event or at a later time. Many also will deliver pieces after the event or ship to out-of-town buyers.

What art prices can I expect?

Most artists try to have work available for a variety of budgets. Prices range from $12 to about $10,000, depending on the individual artist, media, size and whether the work is one-of-a-kind or a multiple. Overall, original art is a great value. An original artwork often costs no more than one special outfit, attending one professional sporting event, or the cost of a few months of cable television.

Are credit cards accepted?

Mastercard and Visa are accepted for tickets, and most artists will take them for purchases.

Will there be food on site or should people eat dinner beforehand?

Food is available at Bearcats restaurant, which is located on the first floor. Additional food can be found throughout the building. Beverage stations are located on all floors. Many artists provide snacks and drinks in their studios, too.

Is there an ATM in the building?

Yes, there is an ATM near Bearcats Restaurant on the 1st floor.
